ANDERSON, S.C., (AP) — "We oughta everyone give a big cheer for God right now!" shouted someone in the crowd.

The crowd roared in agreement as a weary man climbed out of the 40-foot well shaft carrying 17-month-old Yvonne Beasley in his arms.

Few Hold Fate Of 'Rights' Issue

Half Dozen Senators Are Still Undecided

WASHINGTON (AP)—A half dozen undecided senators were reported today to hold the fate of the proposed jury trial amendment to the administration's civil rights bill.

An intense struggle behind the scenes to enlist this small, undecided bloc was paralleled by efforts of the amendment's opponents and its supporters to marshal their full strength when a showdown vote comes — possibly not for several days.

As an indication of the uncertainty about the outcome, a coalition of the civil rights bill's backers won as promise from Sen. Payne (R-Maine), who has been ill in Maine, to fly to Washington to cast his vote against the jury trial proposal.

On the other hand, supporters of the amendment hoped that Sen. Bridges (R-NH), who has been recuperating in New Hampshire from an illness, might be well enough to be on hand and might cast his vote with them. Bridges, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, has made no public commitment on the jury trial proposal.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, said he hopes to get the Senate to lay aside the civil rights bill temporarily to work on other unfinished business.

Senators O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Church (D-Idaho) have proposed a civil rights bill amendment which would provide for jury trials in criminal contempt cases growing out of alleged interference with voting rights.

It is broad enough to guarantee such trials for defendants in any type of case in which a court intends to punish a defendant who originally violated its order even if he later signified he would comply with the decision.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) listed President Eisenhower as opposed to insertion of this clause in the bill.

Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.), supporting the amendment as a means of diluting the over-all authority of the civil rights bill, predicted "an extremely close vote" on the issue.

Because the situation was so uncertain, neither side was willing to name publicly members they regard as undecided.

Sen. Javits (R-NY) called on supporters of the bill to "stand fast and tell our opponents we will retreat no more — that we will

Commissioners Okay .2-Mill Health Levy

LISBON — The two-tenths mill levy which was voted on by the health advisory council at a special meeting last Friday night was approved by the Columbiana County Commissioners at their regular meeting Monday afternoon.

The levy will be placed on the ballot of the Nov. 5 election and, if passed, will remain in effect for the years 1958, 1959 and 1960.

The levy was considered necessary after the Ohio attorney general ruled that surplus funds at the end of its year must be returned by the county health department to the subdivisions. The County Health Board had anticipated a carryover of $23,000 for 1957.

County auditor I. J. Vorndran told the advisory council he thought a .2 mill levy would bring in approximately $16,000.

The estimated $23,000 will be returned to the subdivisions, 27 in all, including townships and villages. The only subdivisions not receiving any return will be East Liverpool, Salem, Wellsville and East Palestine, which have their own health departments and are not served by county health district.

arms. The baby had fallen into a 35-foot abandoned well.

"She's okay," yelled rescuer Roberts.

But for four terrible hours Monday night, no one could be sure 17-month-old Yvonne Beasley would come out alive. Her 3-year-old brother Richard David wept with his parents, begging for his sister to come out of the hole.

Kept Crying for Sister
"That's all he kept saying the whole time," Mrs. J. B. Beasley said today. "He just kept crying and saying, 'I want my sister out of the hole.'"

Richard and his chubby, brown-haired, blue-eyed sister were playing in the yard Monday evening while their mother fixed supper.

"Richard came running in the house crying, 'Sister fell in the hole and got hurt,' the 28-year-old mother said.

"I ran out, but I never thought of the old well pipe. It's away from the house and covered with a bucket held down by a 12-pound stone. I ran right past it.

"I ran into the front yard and then back again and then I heard her crying and calling 'Mommy, mommy, mommy.'"

Nobody Would Stop

"I ran out in the road and tried to stop a car. We don't have any phone and there aren't any neighbors close. I ran and screamed but nobody would stop. I guess they thought it was some family fight.

"Finally, after about 20 minutes a car stopped and a woman got out and came with me. Her husband went to phone the firemen.

"We ran to the well, but I couldn't even see Yvonne. But I could hear her crying. She cried the whole time."

The Beasleys live about seven miles from town on a little road off the highway. The young mother was alone because her husband was going to a GI class at the Anderson High School. He was summoned home.

The well was wedged almost at the bottom of the narrow drill pipe of the old well. Doctors supervised piping oxygen to her while drilling experts bored a parallel well 40 feet deep and removed a section of pipe and an old bucket stuck in the pipe joint to reach her.

Mrs. Beasley said she thought some older children may have removed the heavy stone.

Smiled and Smiled

"The man who rescued her said she just grabbed his neck and smiled and smiled," Mrs. Beasley said, her voice still trembling with strain.

"The doctors said she just had a few scrapes. She was just dirty and hungry. They gave her warm milk here at the hospital."

The four-hour fight for Yvonne's life drew hundreds of curious and sympathetic people to the Beasley home.

While Yvonne's parents cried, sobbed and prayed in each other's arms, the drill crew worked frantically, finally lowering Red Roberts of Anderson into a newly drilled parallel well after 4 hours and 20 minutes.

Crowd Cheered, Wept
As Roberts appeared clutching the dirty child, the crowd cheered and wept. "She's okay," he yelled.

The rescue here was similar to that of 7-year-old Benny Hooper, of Manorville, N.Y., who was trapped near the bottom of a 24-foot well shaft in the back yard of his Long Island home for 23½ hours last May 16-17. Oxygen was pumped down to him during his long ordeal as rescue workers dug a parallel shaft and then cut through to him. Benny suffered only minor injuries.

Tasseled Corn Presents Pretty Picture Here But Not In East

A prolonged drought in the East has stunted corn and retarded the growth of other farm crops. Picture (left above) shows Gabriel Nagy, a Bridgeport, Conn., farmer pondering his fate in a field of corn which normally would be shoulder-high by now. Farmers in Ohio are more fortunate this summer and (at right) Miss Iva Shoff, 15, of RD 5, Salem, shows that Iowa isn't the only place where the corn grows tall. She adds a pretty touch to the picture as she inspects a field of corn at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Shoff of the Canfield Rd.

Dulles, 'Arms' Experts Confer

Try To Work Out Accord With Russia

LONDON (AP)—John Foster Dulles and U.S. disarmament experts locked themselves in the American Embassy today to work out detailed plans for a limited "open skies" disarmament accord with Russia.

"They plan to spend the entire morning in talks," a spokesman said as the U.S. secretary of state closeted himself with Harold Stassen and other American officials. Stassen heads the American delegation to the five-power U.N. Disarmament subcommittee which has bogged down here after five months of negotiations.

Dulles arranged to sit in later on a strategy meeting of the four Western delegations to the talks, representing the United States, Britain, France and Canada.

Also on tap for Dulles was a meeting with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd to discuss a wide range of diplomatic issues, including the tribal uprising in Muscat and Oman.

U.S. officials said it was possible that during his visit Dulles would meet with Soviet disarmament spokesman Valerian Zorin and attend at least one meeting of the disarmament subcommittee.

The secretary of state flew here from Canada Monday at the personal direction of President Eisenhower to review the disarmament talks.

The immediate issue in the disarmament negotiations is the forthcoming presentation of a U.S. plan for aerial inspection between Russia and the West.

Some Western observers interpreted Dulles' first statements here as an indication the West is less hopeful than before of obtaining a broader disarmament treaty at this time, and that he will attempt to salvage some sort of agreement on aerial inspection which would reduce the danger of surprise attack.

Nathan Leopold Will Learn Today If He Will Get Release This Year

Election Board Will Act On Printers' Bids

The Columbiana County Election Board is scheduled to act Aug. 12 on printers' bids on furnishing more than 300,000 ballots for the Nov. 5 general election and take the final step toward creation of a fourth voting precinct for Knox Township.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said today job printers have been asked to submit bids by 2 p.m. that day. The bids will be opened at the board's meeting at 9.

The same time has been set for the required public hearing on plans to establish a new voting area in Knox because of the unusually heavy turnout in the township at the last election, O'Hanlon said.

Under the board's plans, the township's precincts would be known as - northeast, voting at Westville — the new voting area; southwest, voting at North Georgetown; northwest, voting at Mile Branch Grange, and southwest, voting at Homeowners.

3 Face Auto Theft Charges In Lisbon

LISBON — Lisbon authorities will file auto larceny charges against three men apprehended early Monday morning after allegedly breaking and entering a store at Hookstown, Pa. and stealing three cars.

Mayor Wilbur Warren today is expected to bind over to the September Grand Jury Douglas Moore, 29 of Roanoke Rapids, N.C., Theodore Luscius Penamon, 24, of Washington D.C. and Willie Mickens, 23, of Pittsburgh.

Moore and Mickens were captured about 3 a.m. Monday by Lisbon Patrolman John Varner. Penamon was apprehended by Minerva police at 6:30 a.m. in a stolen car reported to Lisbon police half an hour earlier.

The three men, former inmates of the Lewisburg Penitentiary, got together in Pittsburgh Sunday, and started toward Chicago. They allegedly robbed Allison's Grocery Store in Hookstown around midnight and then came to Lisbon and stole two cars.

The subjects were interrogated at great length Monday by village police, FBI agents, railroad detectives and Assistant County Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis.

'Thriller' Of 1920's Has Served 33 Years For Boy's Murder

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Nathan Leopold, a prisoner of his kill-for-a-thrill experiment since 1924, learns today whether he may become a free man this year.

The judge who ordered him put away for 99 years said he hoped that Leopold's sentence was one for life and that there would be "no parole."

Leopold, now 52, with 33 years of experience as a model convict, is seeking his freedom on the ground that he has been rehabilitated.

An educator and onetime guinea pig of prison malaria experiments, Leopold says, "I ask not for justice, but for the mercy I did not show."

His answer hinges upon the action of Gov. William G. Stratton in response to Leopold's plea for a second reduction of his sentence.

Leopold was 19 when he and Richard Loeb, also 19, entered the penitentiary at Joliet for the slaying of Bobby Franks, 14-year-old son of a wealthy Chicago neighbor.

Loeb is dead, knifed by a fellow convict he outraged in 1936. Leopold, a model prisoner, was granted a cut in his sentence to 85 years in 1949 by former Gov. Adlai Stevenson for serving, with other convicts, as a guinea pig in wartime tests of experimental malaria drugs.

He asked the parole board July 9 to recommend a further reduction of his term to 64 years — which would make him eligible for release Dec. 11 this year under the penal provision which sets one half of the total term plus 15

3 Hurt When Pursued Car Strikes Tree

Three youths were injured but escaped possible death when their automobile crashed into a tree near the intersection of the Palmyra Road and Route 534 near Lake Milton at 9:45 p.m. Monday as they were being pursued by a state highway patrolman of the Canfield barracks.

The patrolmen took chase when three cars speeded past him on the Palmyra Road, presumably racing.

He clocked two of the cars at 75 miles an hour when he stopped them. It was then that the officer discovered the lead car had crashed against a tree in an open field just east of Lake Milton.

The driver of that car, Richard Batske, 19, of Canfield, who escaped injury, was charged with reckless operation and failing to obey a stop sign.

The youthful drivers of the other two cars were cited into Mahoning County juvenile court.

Injured passengers in Batske's car were:
Barbara Talley, 16, lacerated lip and chipped teeth; Virginia Ollei, 17, injured nose; Tony Zografides, 17, injured left arm. All are from Youngstown. None was treated at a hospital.

Tommy Jackson Enters Hospital

Not Known If Fight Brought On Ailment

EAST MEADOW, N.Y. (AP)—Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, TKO'd by heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson Monday night, was rushed to a hospital early today, suffering from a urinary complaint.

His condition was described as fair at Meadowbrook Hospital. Whether the condition stemmed from blows suffered in his unsuccessful title quest was not known immediately.

His mother, Mrs. George Jackson, took the boxer to the hospital by automobile at 4:30 a.m. Jackson told hospital attendants he "felt bad."

Jackson's manager, Lippe Breitbart, told a newsman today at the Colonial Hotel in Manhattan he had not heard of Jackson going to a hospital.

Breitbart said Jackson and his mother, Mrs. George Jackson, spent some time at Breitbart's hotel suite after the fight, and the two started for the mother's home in St. Albans, Queens.

Highway Dept. Demand Irks Mayor, Council

Unless City Agrees, Paving Costs To Be More Than Planned

The State Highway Department threw a "road block" into the city's plans for resurfacing three major thoroughfares here by insisting today that all parking be removed permanently from the streets.

Unless parking is removed on East and West State St., Mill and Newgarden Streets, the state will pay only 50 per cent of what is considered the roadway portion of the streets and the city will have to assume the full cost of the additional 16 feet.

The state considers eight feet on each side of the street as parking area at the present time.

Resurfacing of that portion of the streets would be entirely up to the city as far as expenses go, although the state would let the entire contract for bidding. Mayor Dean B. Cranmer was told by State Highway Division Engineer William Quicksall and Jack Kimble, assistant division engineer on location and design.

Council Acted Week Ago

City Council last week passed an ordinance to cooperate with the state in the asphaltic resurfacing of the streets, but the measure does not become effective until Aug. 23, because it was not an emergency action.

Mayor Cranmer and a number of the councilmen voiced immediate objections to the state demands on the grounds that no mention was made previously that parking be removed.

"No word of this was ever mentioned in our previous dealings with the state highway department on these projects," Mayor Cranmer said, "and we don't think it is fair."

State Highway Department officials urged that Council write an amendment to the ordinance specifying that the streets will be cleared of parking.

Kimble, who conferred with Columbiana County commissioners relative to the project because the county will aid in the financing, urged that City Council decide soon because the state wants to advertise the project for letting in the near future.

Oct. 15 is the state deadline for black-topping work.

Mayor Cranmer complained in a telephone call to L. F. Schaeublin of Columbus, who is in charge of maintenance for the Highway Department, but got little encouragement that the "no parking" demand could be lifted.

The state made a similar demand on parking when downtown State Street was paved with concrete three years ago but the state relented when the city agreed to widen that three-block section two feet on each side. The cost of widening, however, was borne by the city.

The ordinance covering the resurfacing of East and West State St., Mill and Newgarden Streets stipulates that the state will provide 50 per cent of the $38,500 cost. County commissioners on July 5 agreed to give $7,500 which would reduce the city's portion to $21,000.

However, under the state's new demands, the city's share of expense could climb to about $40,000, it is feared.

Boy Is Hurt While Riding His Bicycle

Police said the boy, who was treated at City Hospital, rode his bike into the path of the car.

Autos driven by Anna Belle Morrow, 27, of RD 4, Salem, and Henry D. Koran, 23, of RD 1, Salem, collided at the intersection of Jennings Ave. and W. State St. at 9 p.m. Monday, according to police.

Corrigan Says Wedler Guilty

Intends To File Murder Charges

DELAND, Fla. (AP)—Samuel Sheppard's chief defense attorney prepared a statement today for Donald J. Wedler to sign claiming he killed Marilyn Sheppard.

If the 23-year-old Florida convict signs it, William Corrigan says he will file murder charges in Ohio and seek Sheppard's release from a life sentence for his wife's death.

"I think this guy did it," Corrigan said after talking to Wedler at Volusia County Jail Monday.

Cleveland, Ohio, authorities, however, already have discounted a confession Wedler made two weeks ago. They say his confession was just 1 of 26 to the slaying on July 4, 1954, and that Wedler knows nothing more about the crime than he could have read in newspapers and magazines.

How Corrigan would bring a murder charge against Wedler before a grand jury for indictment was not disclosed. Such a step would be necessary to bring him to trial in Ohio.

Corrigan said the Cleveland officers who saw Wedler last week and branded his story a hoax "obviously came down here with their minds made up."

His assistant, Fred Garmone, added that "The Cleveland police came down here to find out a few little things of no consequence and then went home. All they did was gather a few items of no real consequence."

Garmone said he was impressed by Wedler's location of a tree on the lawn at the Sheppard home. He said it was doubtful whether Wedler could have read of the tree.

Garmone also told newsmen that Wedler's ability to describe physical aspects of the Sheppard home was "better than I could do."

The defense attorneys said they asked Wedler why he confessed at this late date and the prisoner told them he had something on his mind "and he either had to make it or go crazy."

Sheppard was convicted of the crime on circumstantial evidence and always has maintained he is innocent. His trial in 1955 was one of the most sensational in Ohio's history.

Wedler confessed July 15, to Sheriff Rodney B. Thursty who was holding him on a fugitive charge following escape from a road camp where he was serving a 10-year robbery sentence.

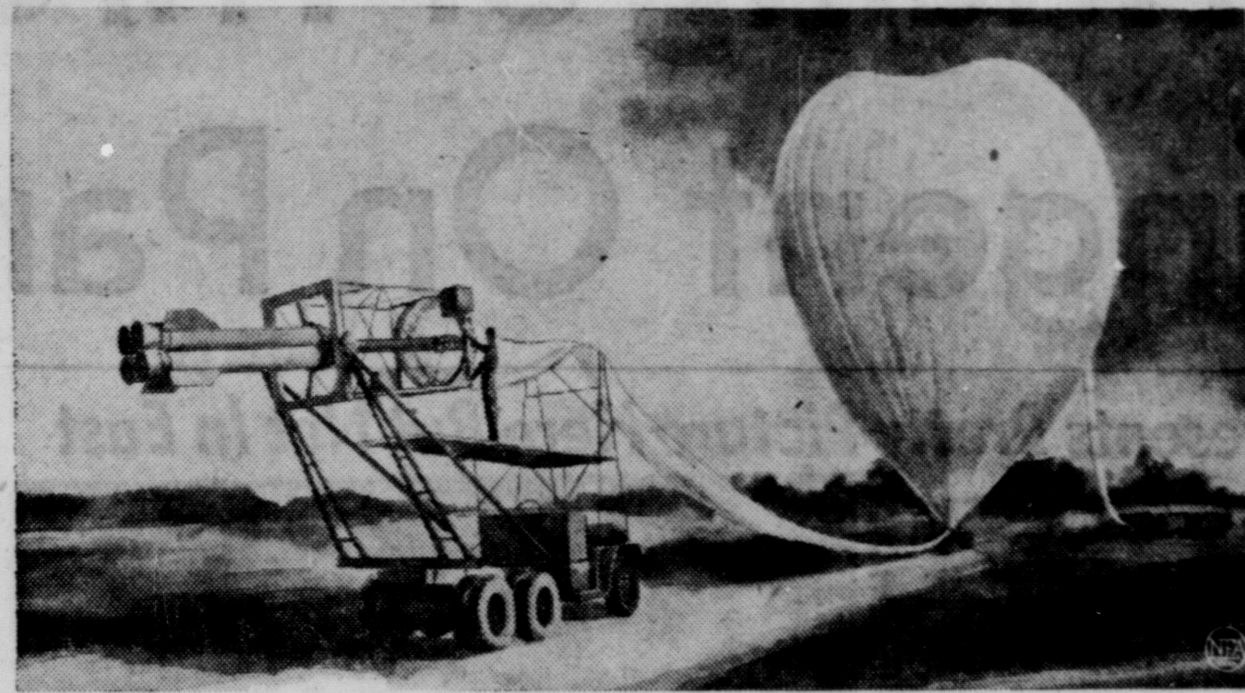

A merchant seaman who says he thinks Wedler is the "nervous young man" who gave him a ride near the slaying scene on the night of the crime passed up an opportunity to see the prisoner Monday.

Ernest Kolofolias, 32, of Long Beach, Calif., checked out of a hotel and said he was leaving town. Kolofolias had expressed a belief that if he could identify Wedler as the person who gave him a ride, it would support Wedler's confession.

Rocket May Soar To New Heights---

An Air Force-sponsored plan, Operation Far Side, will use the largest balloon ever launched to help fire a rocket expected to soar thousands of miles into space. The rocket will be launched from the balloon 20 miles above the Pacific Ocean in September. Purpose of the rocket, which will carry a 3½-pound, highly complex package of scientific instruments at a top speed of more than 17,000 m.p.h., is to investigate atmospheric and space phenomena at extremely high altitudes. Included in the 64-inch package will be a tiny but powerful radio to transmit data to ground receiving and recording stations. The huge balloon, 200 feet in diameter, will hoist the 1,900-pound, 23-foot-long rocket to 100,000 feet before it is fired. This minimizes friction encountered by firing it through the earth's atmosphere. The four-stage rocket will blast upward, straight through the balloon, with a first-stage thrust of 160,000 pounds. From stage four the instrument package and the burned-out last-stage rocket will continue upward through space as a free projectile. The rocket was developed by Aerotronic Systems, Inc., of Los Angeles, Calif., the balloon by General Mills.

SKETCH SHOWS THE ROCKET VEHICLE and its launcher being prepared for flight. Launcher, atop truck, is attached to ring at end of balloon. Balloon is being filled with helium from tanks at right. When the 3,750,000-cubic-foot bag is partially filled, it will lift rocket and launcher off truck. As it rises, the gas expands so that at 100,000 feet it will be fully inflated.

CLOSE-UP OF ROCKET VEHICLE and launching frame shows how it is attached to ring in bottom of the balloon, ready to shoot right through the bag's top. Size of the rocket is comparison to the huge balloon is shown in sketch of complete assembly at lower right.

AFTER REACHING 100,000-foot altitude, vehicle is launched, firing directly through balloon. Note hole in top of bag, torn by the rocket's exit.

Franko Sought Votes, Bailiff Testifies

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Municipal Judge Frank R. Franko planned early in 1953 to become Mahoning County prosecutor and set out "to get votes and win friends," a former bailiff in his court testified.

Ray Casanta, whom the judge fired earlier this year, was a witness for the Mahoning County Bar Assn. in the opening day Monday of a hearing in which Judge Franko is charged with violating judicial ethics.

Attorney Lloyd E. Bilger of Columbus, Henry A. Middleton of Toledo, a former state Supreme Court justice, and Bruce W. Bierce of Akron are a three-man panel hearing the charges brought against Judge Franko by the bar association. The panel will report to a 25-member commission which will report to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Casanta testified he directed mailing 10,000 letters to traffic violators who had appeared before Judge Franko. The letters asked support for the judge in his candidacy for prosecutor last November, a race in which he was beaten.

The bar association charges the judge did not mark offenses on the back of drivers' licenses for persons convicted in his court and that during the campaign he reminded violators he had not marked their licenses.

Judge Franko has denied any violation of judicial ethics, and it was upon his request that the hearing was opened to the public.

Ohio Mental Hospitals' Population Is Low

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The patient population at Ohio's mental hospitals is the lowest in almost four years despite a record high admission rate, Dr. C. Earl Albrecht, acting director of the state department of mental hygiene and correction, said today.

The director attributed a stepped up discharge rate to a substantial increase in the number of hospital personnel, the success of new treatment methods involving tranquilizing drugs, and improved social services that make for a more successful transition from hospital to community by the discharged patient.

Dr. Albrecht said June 30, 1955 marked a record high in patient population when 27,321 patients were housed in 21 state institutions.

for the mentally ill.

Since that date, Albrecht said, there has been a small but steady decline until the figure stood at 26,489 on June 30 of this year — a drop of 832. This is the lowest patient total since Nov. 30, 1953, Albrecht said.

Wisconsin Voters Select Nominees

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Wisconsin voters today picked Democratic and Republican nominees for the Aug. 27 special election that will fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Despite intense campaigns by some of the seven Republican and two Democratic candidates, the race has failed to generate much interest in the primary, called by Republican Gov. Vernon Thomson less than a month ago.

The primary winners will meet Aug. 27 for the remainder of the term ending in January 1959.

The Democratic primary is a two-man race between Rep. Clement Zablocki, 45, Milwaukee, and William Poxmire, 41, three-time nominee for governor. Poxmire, of Madison, is favored to win because his campaigning in the last three gubernatorial elections home.

made him more widely known.

Of the seven GOP candidates only former Gov. Walter Kohler, 33, has campaigned on a program of avowed support for President Eisenhower. He and former Rep. Glenn Davis, 41, a veteran of five terms in the House, are rated as the favorites. Davis has been critical of the administration's foreign policy and foreign aid program.

Suspect In Slaying Surrenders To Police

She is held in county jail pending filing of charges in the case. Mrs. Cobb was wounded fatally in the kitchen of her home. Detectives said they learned the two women had been in an argument several hours before the shooting. Mrs. Murray is accused by police of having gone to the Cobb home in a taxicab, entering the kitchen and firing a revolver at Mrs. Cobb. Police said there were three witnesses to the shooting.

Guarding Your Health

By Dr. EDWIN P. JORDAN

It is desirable to issue a warning about appendicitis every once in a while.

This tricky and common condition is still responsible for several thousand deaths each year, most of which could have been avoided.

The appendix usually lies in the lower right part of the abdomen. But it may be on the left side or it can be twisted so that it lies toward the back. Hence the location of pain may not always be alike.

Furthermore, acute appendicitis does not always cause severe pain. In older people especially, the pain may be slight and may not be located where it is expected to be. In fact, the pain is likely to be, at least at first pretty much over the entire abdomen.

Vomiting with appendicitis is common, but diarrhea is rare. Fever is the rule, though this is often not very high.

The presence of too many white blood cells almost invariably accompanies acute appendicitis. For this reason a blood count is most important if appendicitis is suspected.

Cathartics or laxatives are dangerous. If there is the slightest question of appendicitis the best thing to do while waiting for a diagnosis is to eat and drink nothing at all. Laxatives (and to a lesser extent, food and drink) produce wave-like movements in the intestines which greatly increase the chances of rupturing the appendix and spilling the inflamed and germ-laden contents into the abdominal cavity.

In recent years penicillin has often been given before operation and afterwards. This seems to make the recovery somewhat easier.

Most deaths from appendicitis could be avoided if more people realized the risks of using laxatives or of waiting too long before the appendix is removed.

Driver Picks Up 17 Penalty Points In Hurry

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP) — An 83-year-old Chillicothe (226 Seminole Rd.) man picked up 17 drivers' license penalty points all at one time yesterday. Under the new Ohio law, 12 penalty points are sufficient to bring about a revocation of license.

The penalty points were accumulated yesterday as Mayor E. R. Fender of nearby Sardinia fined Frederick Moore $10 and costs on each of charges of driving to the left of the center line, failure to stop after two accidents and reckless driving.

State patrolmen said Moore, driving east of Sardinia on Ohio 74, first sideswiped a car driven by Lorin Ogden of near Sardinia. They said he continued on without stopping and then struck the rear of a car driven by Bernard Davis, 49, formerly of Sardinia. Moore's car careened into a ditch but he continued on east until he was apprehended.

Government's Duty

By HERBERT BROWNELL, Jr.

This guest column by the attorney general of the United States was written at the invitation of Victor Riesel who is now in Europe.

Our greatest asset in the United States is our people.

Other resources are many and they are bountiful but would be nothing were it not for the men and women who, since our nation was born, have put those resources to work. It has not been owners or management or labor, as separate entities, which have done this but all of them together.

True, as the nation grew, we have had strife between these groups. But as the nation grew so did our knowledge and understanding, to the end that unrestrained antagonism between them has long been absent from our national scene.

That is as it should be and as it shall be so long as reasonable men sit down together and work out their problems jointly.

IN ADDITION, our federal, state and local governments have a part to play, through their law enforcement officers, in protecting all segments in our industrial life against lawless elements.

This governmental protection is given to guard against the evils of the Communist conspiracy and also the evils of racketeering.

Years ago, both the AFL and CIO cleaned the Communists from their unions. Meantime, so-called labor racketeers began moving in and responsible leaders have been doing what they could to stem that insidious tide.

They have been receiving the help of the federal government. While the national government has a limited jurisdiction, there are two federal statutes that reach the labor racketeering practices.

LONG ON OUR law books was the Hobbs Anti-Racketeering statute but it was not extensively enforced. Also lying dormant was the section of the Labor Management Relations Act designed to halt bribery of union officers by an employer seeking to buy labor peace.

Since February 1953, however,

105 officials of labor unions, mostly of locals, have been indicted and convicted of violating these laws. Another 61 are under indictments and await trials.

This drive has received the support of honest labor officials and has been of great benefit to those union members who had been the victims of racketeering hoodlums.

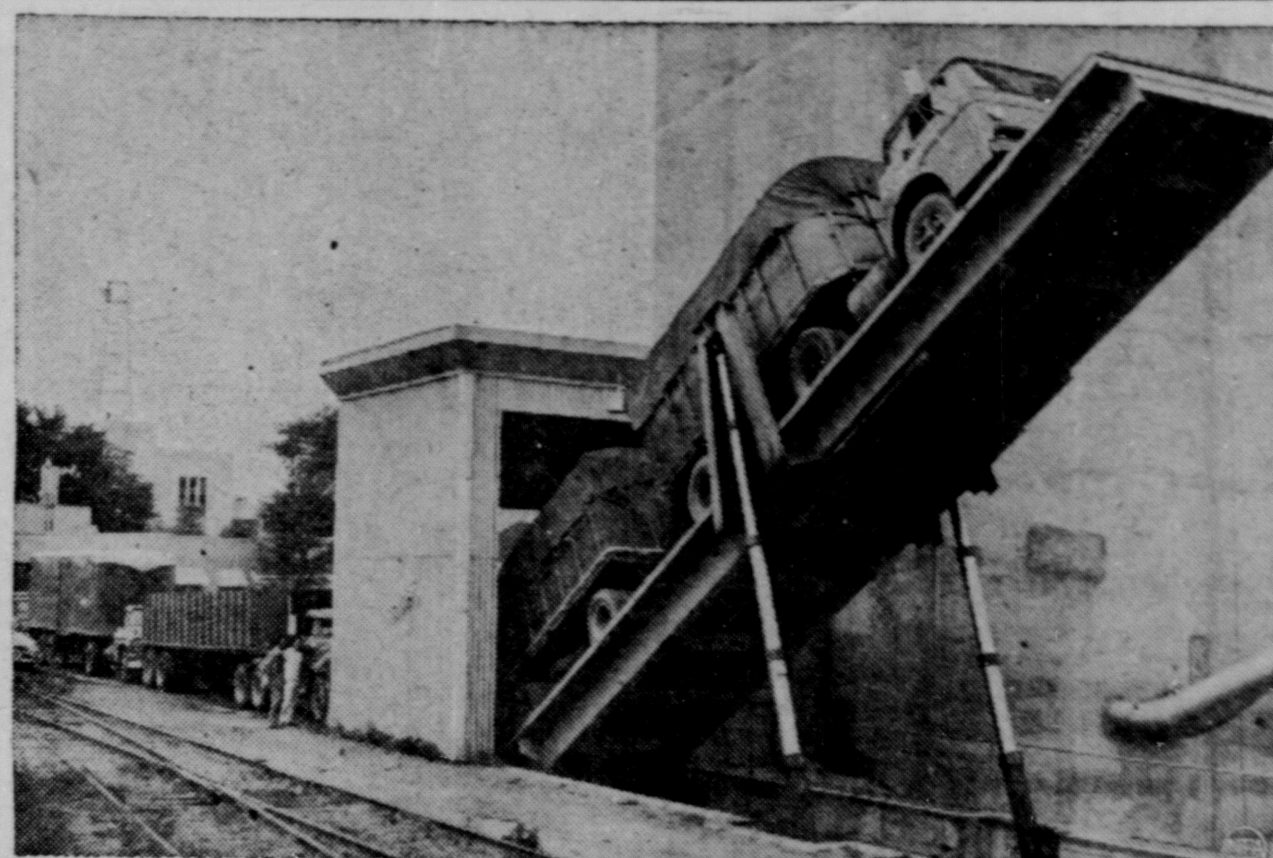

The Hobbs Act covers situations where a racketeer in control of a labor union demands a payoff, usually in the form of cash, from an employer, under threat of damaging the employer, if the payoff is not made, by strikes, slowdowns, or violent injury to his property, person or family.

AN OUTSTANDING example is the case of the former president of the Southern Illinois District Council of the Hodcarriers and Common Laborers Union.

This self-styled "empire builder" and an associate demanded from a contractor in the construction field, as the price of labor peace, one per cent of the entire contract to build a power plant for the federal government at Jopka, Ill.

This would have amounted to $1,030,000 in cash.

When he did not get the money, he plagued the contractor with 18 months of jurisdictional strikes,

TRUCK DUMP — Dump trucks are a common transportation aid, but they've turned things around in Michigan City, Ind., where this "truck dumper" has been installed. For ease of unloading, huge trailer trucks are driven onto the steel platform, which is then raised like the span of a drawbridge, spilling the cargoes of grain into a conveyor in a pit below the device. The innovation is part of the new Cargill Incorporated grain elevator from which grain is shipped to Chicago.

sabotage of equipment, violence to workers, and other intimidation, with the result the employer had to relinquish the contract. According to estimates during his trial, this campaign of terrorism caused a dead loss of $1 million dollars to the government in the form of increased construction costs.

AN EXAMPLE of violation of the Labor Management Relations Act is found in the conviction of five individuals and their employer corporation in Minnesota, which recently was upheld by the Supreme Court. Here the union officials received a substantial bribe from the company.

The five individuals were officials of affiliates of the Teamsters Union. Convicted with them were the company and one of its vice presidents.

THE CURRENT investigations by the Senate Committee are showing other abuses in the labor field which are not covered by federal laws.

These inquiries, in which the Department of Justice is cooperating, undoubtedly will lead to new types of legislation in order that practices, which the honest labor leader and union member abhor, may be brought to an end.

This nation will continue to grow and with each passing year its working force will grow with it.

It is of increasing importance that their best interests be protected.

It will continue to be the duty and purpose of federal law enforcement officers, within their jurisdiction, to prosecute those who would use workers for their own ulterior motives and personal enrichment.

DEAF MUTE, 12, DROWNS

SIDNEY, 12, Jerry Howell, a 12-year-old deaf mute from Port Jefferson, drowned in the Miami River near his home Monday when he was unable to call to his companions for help.

The youth was playing on a raft with four friends and dived in to swim, police said. He ran into trouble in the water but could not attract his companions' attention.

GIRL, 16, DROWNS

Defiant Farmer Gets Assist From Senator Bricker

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—In his fight against wheat planting controls, farmer John Donaldson of New London got an assist from Sen. John W. Bricker this week and got slapped with a new $32 penalty for allegedly overplanting his 1957 allotment.

Bricker sent Donaldson a report the senator had requested from the Ohio Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The report described Donaldson as "the ringleader in influencing others to defy the wheat program in Huron County." For this reason, it said, legal action was recommended.

Through the federal district court at Toledo, the government is attempting to collect $205 in wheat marketing penalties assessed against Donaldson in 1956.

The new penalty, for the 1957 planting, is based on overplanting an 11-acre allotment by 12 acres for an excess yield of 238 bushels.

Donaldson said the $322.66 amount of the new penalty was "more than I could get for all my wheat at market value if I could sell it."

In his federal court case, Donaldson is refusing to pay the 1956 assessment on grounds the wheat planting controls violate his constitutional rights to grow as much wheat as he wants for use on his own farm as livestock feed.

In a letter accompanying the report sent to Donaldson, Senator Bricker wrote:

"I am very much interested in the steady growth of resistance to the wheat penalty section of the Agricultural Adjustment Act. 'I believe the section should be abolished, particularly as it applies to food, feed and seed grain, and have made every possible effort to secure such action.'"

HOLD THREE FOR THEFT

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—Three former convicts accused of stealing groceries and cash from a grocery store in Beaver County, Pa., were arrested near here Monday.

Police identified them as Douglas Moore, 29, Roanoke Rapids, N. C.; Theodore Lucas, 34, Washington, D. C.; and Willie Mickens, 26, Pittsburgh. Each had served time in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., for auto theft, officers said.

The Jazz Age

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—There are two periods in our history about which Americans are incurably romantic — the Gay Nineties and the Roaring Twenties.

Time has removed from the earthly scene most of those old enough to relish the tang of a Gay Nineties, but millions are still alive whose youth coincided with those years of the Grasshopper between the end of the first world war and the beginning of the great depression — the so-called Jazz Age. And at the first tinkling notes of an old Irving Berlin tune, many will drop nostalgic tears in their beer.

There has been a great revival of interest in "the Jazz Age," and many of today's serious, security-minded young people are inclined to ask rather crossly, "just what was so wonderful about it anyway?"

What they missed is movingly told in "The Lawless Decade," by Paul Sann, executive editor of the New York Post, and George Hornby, a big bountiful prose and pictorial saga of the era of prohibited booze and the uninhibited flapper.

It was the heyday of a generation which sometimes liked to call itself lost — and finally did get lost — but really merely liked to burn the candle at both ends, and live always on the edge of ecstasy.

It was a time when people tried to cure their own self-doubts by mumbling the message of Emile Coue, a French peace-of-mind salesman: "day by day in every way 'I'm getting better and better.' That was the national, as well as the individual credo: 'everything is getting better and better.' And things did keep getting better—until they fell apart all at once.

It was a time of liberty and license, of great literary experiment, of personal freedom, when there were still plenty of rules—but the rules were made to be broken.

It was a time of great heroes—Gertrude Ederle, Charles Lindbergh, Jack Dempsey, Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones, Bill Tilden, Red Grange, Clarence Darrow, H. L. Mencken.

It was a time when the flapper tried to prove she could do anything a man could — but actually succeeded only in being the worst-dressed woman in the history of mankind.

The symbol of the Jazz Age was a lonely trumpet stuttering in a smoke-filled speakeasy. The word that describes it best is probably "excess."

It was a time when anyone who didn't plunge in Wall Street was a sissy. And it all came to an end after the October panic of 1929 started selling waves that wiped out 30 billion dollars in paper values. The depression was the hangover that followed.

Dog Doomed Unless Appeal Is Made

KENTON, Ohio (AP)—Unless an appeal is made in her behalf within the next 17 days, Annie, a young St. Bernard dog, appears doomed for the execution chamber.

Annie, owned by Mrs. Joanna Perkins of Kenton, is accused of killing six sheep belonging to Emerson Fay, a Hardin County farmer, last February.

The dog was ordered destroyed, but court appeals have thus far spared her life. Last Saturday, however, Judge Arthur D. Tudor of the Hardin County Common Pleas Court denied a motion for a new "trial." If an appeal to the Third District Court of Appeals of Ohio is to be made, it has to be filed within the next 17 days.

Hardin County authorities have said they will execute the dog in a humane way if no appeal is made.

Asiatic Flu May Hit Ohio By This Fall

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A new type of influenza called Asiatic Flu reportedly has already struck San Diego, Calif., and could possibly reach Ohio this fall.

If it does, says state Health Director Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, the state "probably will not" be able to handle it.

The state's virus laboratory at Ohio State University is working at capacity now in identifying influenza strains, Dwork said Monday. The laboratory could not possibly handle the increased load that would accompany a flu epidemic here, he asserted.

Gov. C. William O'Neill has asked Dwork to recommend the amount of money needed to make sure the state is prepared for any new epidemic. The health director said even if the funds were immediately forthcoming, the virus laboratory "probably could not be expanded in time to meet the emergency."

He added, however, that in the event an epidemic strikes, the virus laboratory would devote its entire staff and facilities to identification tests and other necessary measures, and would farm out other laboratory functions, such as milk testing, to other district laboratories.

Though not satisfactory, Dwork said, such a program would at least allow the virus laboratory to handle part of the increased load.

UNAFFECTED—Miriam Montanez, left, is as happy as any other 16-month-old toddler in her Hoboken, N.J., neighborhood. No one would suspect that the youngster has a sewing needle deeply imbedded in her brain. The needle, shown in X-ray photo at right, will probably remain there all of Miriam's life, doctors say, because an operation to remove it might be fatal. It was a year ago that a picture frame fell on Miriam. Doctors predicted that the needle, which had been stuck in the picture frame, would not interfere with her life. So far they've been right.

Scientist Sees Huge Savings From Isotopes

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—An atomic energy commissioner predicted today that savings from peaceful uses of radioisotopes will soon offset the cost of the nation's nuclear weapons program.

Dr. Willard F. Libby said "within three to five years—probably more nearly three, sometime in 1960—isotopes probably will be paying the whole way for the atom."

That means, he added, "the American people and the Western World will get their atomic armament and their atomic power development costs all free—in the sense that the benefits of five billion dollars annual savings in industrial processing and agricultural costs are pretty well distributed among the taxpayers."

Libby's comments were contained in a speech for the dedication of a new plant of the Beryllium Corp.

"Already, with out present 500 million dollars' annual savings for a direct outlay of about three million annually, isotopes are giving a fair return on the total investment in the whole atomic energy project," he said.

The nuclear weapons stockpile and atom power developments, Libby continued, "are beginning to be borne by the largely unsung but very benevolent isotopes."

Isotopes are different forms of the same element, and they have different characteristics. Some radio isotopes are by-products of atomic reactors.

As an example of the 500 millions yearly savings already achieved in agriculture and industry, Libby cited the use of radioisotopes as gauges in measuring, recording and controlling the thickness of various materials such as aluminum, rubber and cellophane. He reported that U. S. manufacturers estimated they are saving 120 million dollars annually on costs through their use and that the savings probably will rise to a billion a year in two or three years.

Libby listed several isotopes which he said would drop sharply in price with widespread use.

Radioactive carbon, for example, now sells for $22,000 per curie, Libby said. He said a price of $110 per curie might become possible with volume production. The curie is a measure of radiation.

months for prisoners with good records.

Leopold, his health but little impaired by chronic diabetes, has carved an unusual career within the limitations of his prison environment.

Classed as a brilliant student by alienists at his trial, he had won a bachelor of science degree from the University of Chicago at 18. In prison, he has pursued his studies independently.

With Loeb, a few years after they were imprisoned, he organized a prison correspondence school which is well rated academically. He organized and expanded the prison library. He has held most of the inmate jobs requiring brain work at Stateville, including operation of the hospital X-ray laboratory, and correspondence in the administrative office.

Leopold, reviewing his prison life, said, "I have tried to do good in prison. But nothing I have done is of intrinsic, lasting importance."

"My work has been the equivalent of making mental mud pies, giving me something to be interested in, something to do."

He said he obtained his "deepest satisfaction" in prison from the wartime malaria experiment. He underwent one attack of the disease, which was cured by a drug then under test. The malaria has not recurred.

Leopold was refused parole four months after his first application in 1953, and his case was postponed until this year. The present board's recommendation was made to the governor in a report kept secret in compliance with state law governing the board's deliberations.

There was no dearth of job offers for Leopold contingent upon his release. Among those have been posts as foreign sales manager for a business firm, translator, and laboratory technician for a church mission project in Puerto Rico.

Leopold has an ample financial cushion against the day of his freedom. His father's will established a $50,000 trust fund for him. He estimated recently that its value has grown to about $170,000.

Sen. Clark (D-Pa.) said he had not been able to find any labor leaders who were backing the amendment, despite Johnson's contention last week that union chieftains were behind the O'Mahoning-Kefauver-Church proposal.

Clark said that while he had thought he might support some form of amendment, he now plans to vote against it.

Sen. Carroll (D-Colo.) suggested as a possible compromise that the bill might be amended to authorize a three-judge panel to rule on contempt cases involving voting rights.

Building Yields 32 Earthquake Victims

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A crew of 500 men dug into the ruins of an apartment building today seeking the last victims of Sunday's earthquake.

The five-story apartment house which crumbled into a pile of concrete and dust was the worst death trap of the 50 old buildings that collapsed in the capital.

By early today 32 bodies had been pulled from the rubble and another victim had died in a hospital. This brought the number of known dead in Mexico City to 52 and the total for the country to 66. All were Mexicans.

Eleven persons were removed alive from the building. One woman was pulled out Monday after being pinned under a pile of wreckage for 28 hours. A mattress which fell on her had saved her.

Most cities in the quake zone frequented by American tourists escaped without damage or casualties. Even in Acapulco, where three persons were killed, damage was relatively minor.

In Mexico City, 20 damaged buildings were marked for demolition. Twenty-one movie houses and five theaters were closed for inspection.

been notified of the proposed change by the posting of notices. The proposed change would divide the township into four geographically equal areas, O'Hanlon said. At present, the precincts are known as east, north and west.

Law requires at least 10 days' notice of any contemplated precinct change, the clerk explained. It provides that if so-called "remonstrances" are not filed by 12 or more electors, the change will go through as scheduled.

Because of the great number of special questions and issues in sight for the fall balloting, plus the first election of three county court judges, the board's ballot requirements for Nov. 5 will be the heaviest in history, O'Hanlon said. Thirty-six propositions already are filed or anticipated. They include proposals from the state, county, villages, cities, townships and school districts.

Some of the ballot requirements include: 47,150 party column tickets for the eight major cities and villages; 54,975 for the new county court judge posts; 57,475 for township offices; 80,425 for independent boards of education; 73,000 for two countywide propositions and from 500 to 20,000 for other tax levies and bond issues.

Aug. 12 also is "sufficiency day" for nominating petitions for non-partisan offices filed before the Aug. 7 deadline. The board will pass upon the legality of the petitions and grant Nov. 5 ballot places to candidates who qualify.

Jackson

about her son's admittance to the hospital when queried at her home. She said she had seen Hurricane take "worse beatings" than he got Monday night.

Jackson's trainer, Whitey Bimstein, said he gave Hurricane a hot bath, applied compresses to his face and put him to sleep at the hotel for a short time. He said Hurricane, his mother and other members of the family left the hotel for home about 2:30 a.m.

Hurricane "left here on his own," Bimstein said at the hotel. He declared the fighter had been examined by a state Athletic Commission physician after the fight in the Polo Grounds and was pronounced O.K.

Jackson's temperature was 102 when admitted, but subsided later to near normal.

Asked whether the 25-year-old fighter was mentally alert, doctors said he was under medication.

They undertook a series of chemical, X-ray and microscopic tests to pin down the exact nature of his ailment and the possible cause.

Dr. George Erickson, assistant superintendent of the hospital, said the ailment was marked by blood in the urine.

"He had, of course, signs of being in the fight, but it wasn't any head injury that brought him here," the doctor said.

To a question whether the ailment might have been caused by punches to the kidneys, doctors said they did not know.

Neither would they say whether the ailment might have had its inception prior to the fight.

When examined at noon Monday in preparation for the fight, Jackson's pulse was 74 at rest. It had been 66 at rest last week at his training camp.

The higher rate Monday "shows a slight tension," Dr. Samuel Swetnick of the New York State Athletic Commission, said at the time.

Jackson reportedly walked with difficulty on arriving at the hospital. He had been wobbling on his feet when Referee Ruby Goldstein ended the fight in the 10th round on a technical knockout by Patterson.

Jackson lives in St. Albans, Queens, adjacent to Nassau County where the hospital is located.

CAR RAMS INTO STORE
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Sam Ellerbe, 35, Youngstown, was in fair condition with a possible concussion and lacerations after his speeding car crashed into the front of a grocery store early Monday. Police estimated the damage at $6,000 to the grocery owned by James Larango on Youngstown's East Side.

Patterson Scores Technical Knockout Over Jackson

Fight Stopped In 10th Round

Champion To Fight Rademacher Aug. 22

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson today planned the luxury of a day and a half of loafing after his butchering of Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Then the 22-year-old champ will resume training for his "fantastic" title defense against Pete Rademacher, the balding, Olympic heavyweight champion of 1956, at Seattle Aug. 22.

He scored a 10th-round technical knockout over Jackson at the Polo Grounds Monday night, earning a guaranteed $175,000. For his defense against Rademacher, who never has fought pro, he will collect a $250,000 guarantee.

This adds up to $425,000 for two fights within 24 days for the one-time wayward boy who is following in the footsteps of Joe Louis on boxing's golden trail.

Weighing the heaviest of his career at 184 pounds and punching with blinding speed, Patterson won his 19th straight victory and may have ended the fistic career of the fighter known as the "Animal" in boxing circles.

They call Jackson "Animal" because of his ability to absorb punishment and his tremendous stamina. But he took too much for any beast before Referee Ruby Goldstein ended the bout at 1:52 of the 10th with the protesting Jackson wobbling but on his feet.

The 25-year-old 192½-pound challenger from New York had been dropped three times previously, and had been rocked from head to toe in almost every round by Patterson's violent bursts. His face was battered and bleeding.

There was some confusion at the ringside over the counts of the knockdowns but Goldstein said afterwards Jackson was up at the count of one in the first round (the bell sounded to end the round), three in the second round and four in the ninth.

Goldstein and Judges Bill Recht and Joe Angelo all had Patterson ahead 9-0 scores until the rout was halted.

"Perhaps the most devastating blow Patterson landed was a thumping left hook to the body in the fourth that doubled over Jackson and made him grimace in pain. Jackson offered practically nothing but courage.

Asked why he hadn't gone to the body more often, Patterson said Jackson's "elbows made him hard to hit in the body."

Patterson will rest until Wednesday when he will return to his Greenwood Lake, N.Y., camp to resume work. He said he plans to leave for Seattle Aug. 12.

Jackson, who struggled to break loose from Referee Goldstein's grip when the fight was halted, muttered, "The referee had no right to stop it."

If he really meant it he must have been the only one in the crowd of 18,101 who felt that way deep down.

He admitted he was hurt in the first round. "My legs were lazy," he muttered. "They gave me away."

Asked why he did a jig between most rounds, he replied, "To make my legs unlazy."

Jackson took a fearful beating although there wasn't much visible damage afterwards. He had bled from the nose and had been puffed around the eyes.

The promotion by dress manufacturer Emil Lence was the first heavyweight title fight staged by an independent since the International Boxing Club, ruled a monopoly by a federal judge, was formed in 1949.

The radio-TV sponsor paid $175,000 and the gross gate may have hit $190,000. On this basis Jackson received about $64,800. Patterson's 40 per cent came to about $134,800, but he had the $175,000 guarantee.

On Your Mark...

Facts and Fancies About Sports

By MARK MILLER

Only 21 days are left until king football again makes its appearance in Salem. Prospects for a successful season here show considerable promise.

Earle Bruce, Salem High School head football coach who will start his second season at the helm of the Quakers, said he is looking forward to greeting some 70 candidates for the initial practice August 20.

Among those 70 will be 15 lettermen including co-captains Paul Welch and Henry Maxim, who play left tackle and fullback, respectively. Both are seniors this year.

Many of the boys have been playing baseball and softball during the summer season, and probably will report for early practices in fair condition. Others have been working on various jobs.

Handing out of equipment and physicals have been tentatively set for August 19.

BLAINE MORTON, new athletic assistant at Salem High School, slated to start his duties when the football campaign gets underway, is in town searching for an apartment. He hopes to be settled here within the next week or so.

Twenty four tickets for the Ohio All-Star High School football game August 16 at Canton Fawcett Stadium are on sale at Fisher's News Agency.

SEASON TICKETS for the six home games to be played by the Salem High School football team are on sale at Heddleston Drug Store and Fisher's News Agency for $6.50 a set.

The tickets, placed on sale May 1, have been moving slowly and plenty of choice seats are still available. Ducats can be laid away and picked up on Sept. 1.

SALEM COACHES will attend the football clinic to be held in Canton prior to the all-star game the week of August 9 through the 16.

Jackson's Fistic Future In Doubt

Manager Claims Orders Disobeyed

NEW YORK (AP)—The fighting future of Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson was shrouded in doubt today after the fierce beating he took in his abortive try to lift the heavyweight championship from Floyd Patterson.

His manager, Lippy Breidbart, obviously was down on him, for the Hurricane again disobeyed instructions from his corner Monday night and as a result Referee Ruby Goldstein stopped the scheduled 15-round bout in the 10th after Jackson had been down three times.

Would he permit Jackson to go on fighting? Breidbart was asked in the sweltering dressing room later.

"That's up to the fighter," he snapped, avoiding the use of Jackson's name.

Then Breidbart warmed up to the subject. "He disobeyed my instructions again," he barked. "I told him to wade in and keep low. If he had done that, he would have won the fight. But, no, he has ideas of his own, so he hangs back and waits to throw what he thinks is his Sunday punch."

Breidbart was not impressed by Patterson. "He didn't do a thing when they were fighting in close," he commented. "He only got in some blows at the end of the rounds."

The Hurricane sat disconsolately on the training table and stared bleakly at the floor. For all the battering he took, he carried few scars. He was a beaten fighter.

"My legs were lazy," he muttered. "They gave me away." He was asked why he did a dance between almost every round if his legs were lazy.

"To make them unlazy," he answered. He put up a feeble beef at Referee Ruby Goldstein who stopped it.

"He shouldn't have stepped in," said the Hurricane. "If I had hurt, I would have told him."

As for Patterson, he appeared as though he had just won 10 fast rounds with a sparring partner in training. He, too, sat on a rubbing table, and he, too, spoke in barely audible tones. But his was the voice of a modest victor.

Patterson said he concentrated his attack to Jackson's head because the Hurricane's elbows made him hard to hit in the body. But he was just waiting for the Hurricane to pull his guard up to begin body work.

"I'm going to take two days rest, then go back in training for my next fight," he said.

That's the much - condemned bout with Pete Rademacher in Seattle on Aug. 22. Rademacher, the 1956 Olympic champion, never has fought a pro bout.

"Jackson kept telling me in the clinches to come out and fight," commented Patterson. "He called me a bum. That's a funny way to describe a man who's winning a fight."

Braves Shave Past Giants 9-8

Cardinals Blank Pirates 4-0; White Sox Trim Orioles 5-0

By The Associated Press

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, who has been either very good or very bad so far, looks as though he has his "comeback" in the bag as the St. Louis Cardinals continue to put the pressure on Milwaukee in that National League pennant race.

He went 11 innings to beat Cincinnati 4-3 and pitch the Cardinals into the lead July 5. And it was he who gave up that grand-slam home run to Gil Hodges in the wild ninth inning at Brooklyn July 18 as the Dodgers beat the Cards in 11 and dumped them out of first place.

Monday night, the 25-year-old lefty did all he could to help regain the lead, pitching a two-hitter that beat Pittsburgh 4-0. It was the eighth victory and third shutout in 10 games for the Cards, who stayed second as Milwaukee staged a four-run ninth-inning rally and then pushed over a 10th-inning run to beat the New York Giants 9-8.

That left the Braves three percentage points ahead of the Cards and put them two up on idle Brooklyn. The Dodgers' hold on third place was shaved to half a game as the Philadelphia Phillies, behind Robin Roberts' four-hitter, defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-0.

In the American, southpaw Billy Pierce won his 15th with a four-hitter as the second-place Chicago White Sox trimmed Baltimore 5-0. Boston beat Cleveland 6-2 in the only other game scheduled.

Only two men reached base against Mizell, who gave up a single to Dick Groat and a double to Frank Thomas with two out in the fourth, then counted Roman Mejias among his six strikeouts to end the frame. It was the third victory of the month for Mizell, who moped into July with a 1-6 record. Now he's 4-7.

Wally Moon drove in two runs for the Cards, who managed just two runs, one unearned, off Charley (Whammy) Douglas despite seven walks in five innings from the young, one-eyed right-hander called up from Columbus of the American Assn. Sunday.

The Braves made it 11 out of 15 with a bases-loaded, two-out walk in the 10th after scoring four in the ninth to get a tie. Del Crandall's 13th homer triggered the rally, which brought the tying run home on an error. Two walks sandwiched Crandall's single in the 10th before Felix Mantilla, pinch-hitting in his first appearance since a July 11 injury, worked losing reliever Al Worthington for the payoff pass on a 3-2 pitch.

Wes Covington's two-run homer had given starter Warren Spahn a 3-2 lead in the fourth, but home runs by Daryl Spencer and Ray Jablonski homered to chase the lefty and Willie Mays then homered for a 5-4 New York lead before the Giants added three more in the ninth. Bob Trowbridge won it for the Braves.

Roberts was at his best winning his second in a row—after seven straight defeats—for the Phils to gain an 8-13 record. He walked three and struck out six, while gaining his first shutout since July 14, 1956.

Rookie Harry Anderson, who had three singles, drove in two runs for the Phils, tagged Don Elston with the defeat with a first-inning sacrifice fly.

Pierce, the top winner in the majors, walked none and struck out six as the Sox junked Hec Brown's four-hit shutout with three runs in the sixth on two walks and singles by Minnie Min.

Every Big Ten School Being Investigated

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten Athletic Conference, in the wake of its one year suspension of Indiana football coach Phil Dickens, is conducting investigations of numerous rumors and allegations of recruiting violations.

Commissioner L. (Tug) Wilson said Monday, "There are fewer complaints from Big Ten schools in general circulation under the new financial aid plan, but there are more of them coming directly into our office than in the past."

Wilson said each report or allegation is being investigated and added that the rumors "involve every Big Ten institution."

Dickens was suspended following a meeting of Faculty Representatives Sunday for one year for offering illegal payments to prospective athletes. This would have been Dickens' first year at Indiana. He formerly coached at the University of Wyoming.

In Dickens' absence, his assistants are expected to lead Indiana through the 1957 schedule and during spring practice next year.

Reds Score 2-0 Shutout Over Pirates

CINCINNATI (AP)—Southpaw Nuxhall figures he has whipped the faulty technique that hampered his hurling for the Cincinnati Redlegs earlier this season.

And the changes shows in his work—the most recent performance being his 2-0 shutout of Pittsburgh last Wednesday on eight hits.

The 29-year-old Hamilton left-hander said Monday night, "I've felt really good in the last six times out and I've been more relaxed."

And he added, "There's nothing like confidence."

Nuxhall, once one of the most effective southpaws in the National League, said his trouble was mechanical, his delivery was haywire.

"I have been throwing overhand," he said. "When I have my best stuff, I throw about three quarters. But in this slump, I figured I was throwing at three-quarters, it actually was overhead. It was just something I had to work out by myself."

Nuxhall said he was also fighting himself. "Like a hitter in a slump, I was pressing too hard, trying too hard. It's a funny darn thing, but I'd say to myself I'd go out there and relax, but I'd get out there and it didn't work."

His shutout last week was the second straight game in which he has gone all the way for the Reds. He didn't walk a man and catcher Smokey Burgess said the hurler was "free and easy."

Manager Birdie Tebbets hopes the improvement lasts, for his pitching corps—an uncertain element this season—needs all the help it can get.

Eljer Blasts Jets 7-2;
Electric Furnace Wins

Bill Odorizzi hit two home runs and drove in four runs to lead the Eljer attack.

The Jets tallied first in the bottom of the first inning. Polen singled, and was sacrificed to second, and was sacrificed to second, McCormick singled, Polen holding third, and Polen then scored as Fife grounded out.

Eljer tied the ball game in the top of the second. H. Miller walked, and was sacrificed to second by Odorizzi. Miller reached third on a pass ball, and then scored on a wild pitch.

In the bottom of the second for the Jets, K. Gardner and Bertollette reached base on errors. Muff Bergman popped out to second, and D. Gardner struck out. Polen doubled down the left field line, scoring Gardner.

In the top of the fourth frame, Eljer went ahead to stay. W. Miller walked, H. Miller singled, and Odorizzi hit a home run over the center field fence. Eljer got one more in the fifth, and with two outs and one run home in the seventh, Odorizzi smashed his second home run off the left center field scoreboard.

FURNACE NIPPED THE Marvels in an extra inning contest. Marvels started out with four runs in the third on three hits to Barry, DiAntonio and A. Zoccol, a walk to Mellinger and two Funnace errors.

In the fourth, Furnace tallied six unearned runs as the Marvels, after one out, committed three straight errors. Hanna doubled, Smith reached first on an infield hit, and R. Manning blasted a home run.

The Marvels tied up the game in the fifth on Hanna's double, Mellinger's single, and Ehrhart's double.

In the last half of the eighth for Furnace, Rober singled, Hanna singled, and Beany Allin drove in the winning run with a single to left.

JOE WINKLER HAD a big night as Lincoln breezed by Bliss. It was Joe's inside the park home run with two mates aboard in the fifth inning that wrapped up the game. Bliss had led 2-0 until that time.

Kenmar peeking away until they had built up a 4-1 lead at the end of three frames and then coasted to their victory.

It was a 1-1 tie at the end of the initial frame as Kenmar scored an unearned run, and Jerry Marquis of Hanoverton smashed a home run over the right center field fence.

Kenmar's lead at the end of three innings was due to loose fielding by the losers, as all the winners runs were unearned.

Haney Calls
On Right Man
For Right Job

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney picked one player for one job Monday night and the choice was perfect as the Braves produced a dramatic finish for a victory that enabled them to retain their narrow lead in the National League.

With the Braves and New York Giants tied and with the bases loaded in the last of the 10th, Haney needed a pinch batter for his pitcher.

He called on utility infielder Felix Mantilla, who had not been on the playing field for 18 days because of an injury. The spunky Puerto Rican took his place at the plate, and drew a walk that forced in the winning run, giving the Braves a 9-8 triumph.

"I'd rather use a small wiry guy like Mantilla," Haney said. "He hunches over the plate and is tough to pitch to. I told him to hunch way over the plate and not to swing unless he got something really good."

The decision and his victory were called luck by a pair of former Braves, Ray Crone and Danny O'Connell who now wear the New York uniform.

Crone grumbled a bit as he said "They're lucky enough to win it," meaning the pennant.

O'Connell said, "It looks like it's in the cards for them. I've never seen them this lucky before," and he added, "it certainly wasn't this way last year," when the Braves finished second. The Braves remained a half game and three percentage points ahead of the second place St. Louis Cardinals.

All Stars Must Be
Mean If Hope To Win

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The College All Stars are going to have to get mean if they hope to defeat the New York Giants, professional football champions, at Soldier Field Aug. 9.

One seasoned observer put it this way:

"The (the All Stars) can be the 48 nicest young college graduates in the world the morning of Aug. 10. But the night of Aug. 9 they'd better be mean enough to bite their own brothers. Otherwise it will be no contest. Those Giants are not going to be doing any arm tackling. They'll really hit."

The Stars went through a sluggish workout Monday which assistant coach Don Paul called "miserable."

LISBON — A 17-year-old Washington, Pa., youth was taken into custody Monday noon by Washington, Pa., authorities for probation violation after he was released in their charge by juvenile judge Louis Tobin for the theft of money at the Peter Pan Cleaners, N. Market St., Wednesday evening.

The youth and a truck driver for Peter Pan, Peter Lipinski 19, also of Washington, Pa., were apprehended with marked money in their possession taken from the local store when they made their deliveries.

Both had been on probation when they committed the Lisbon offense.

Settlement Rejected In 'Confidential' Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Despite a warning from the defense that "reputations of many persons will suffer if this case goes to trial," the court has turned down a proposed compromise agreement in the criminal libel case against Confidential magazine.

Trial is slated to begin Friday. The proposed settlement has worked out Monday during a long meeting of the prosecution and the defense in the district attorney's office. It would have provided:

1. Confidential and its sister publication Whisper would stop printing smear articles against celebrities.

2. Charges against defendants Fred and Marjorie Meade, accused of supplying information about Hollywood figures to Confidential, would be dropped.

3. The case against the magazines and other corporate defendants would be decided on the basis of the transcript of the grand jury hearing in which they were indicted.

Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker, in rejecting the compromise, held insufficient reason had been given for dismissing the four conspiracy counts against the Meades.

U.S. Formally Joins Atomic Energy Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has formally become a member of the International Atomic Energy Agency, an outgrowth of President Eisenhower's 1953 "atoms for peace" proposals. Eisenhower signed the pact Monday, enrolling this nation in the agency. His signature formally brought IAEA into being since its establishment depended on the ratification by three major atom powers.

Russia and Britain were the first two major powers to adopt the pact. The United States was the 22nd nation to ratify the plan. The Senate approved it June 18, 1956.

Under the international agency plan, the President may enter into agreements with the agency whereby uranium 235 would be made available for distribution in other countries for peaceful purposes.

A bill pending in Congress would require prior consent of both houses of Congress for each transfer of fissionable material to IAEA. The administration opposes the measure.

'Not That Hot,' Say
Mystified Firemen

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—It was hot in Canton Monday night, but not THAT hot, say mystified firemen who are trying to figure out what set off the automatic sprinkler at O'Neil's big department store.

The fire protection device sprinkled merchandise on the first floor of the store, and water seeped into the basement, filling the elevator shaft well to basement level.

Firemen spent two hours at the store in a mopping up operation. There was no immediate estimate of damage.
